

The New York Times

DEC. 8, 2014

Holiday Crullers

By FLORENCE FABRICANT

To Celebrate: Iced Crullers for the Holidays

New York has become doughnut central, but how about a cruller for a change? Since they're fried, like latkes, they're appropriate for Hanukkah, too. Mitchel London, who owns Burgers & Cupcakes and runs the cafe at Fairway Market, is now selling his big, fluted, iced crullers at Butterfield Market. It also carries his excellent savory tarts and desserts, all worth considering for holiday entertaining. His cruller recipe comes from Sally Darr, who was the chef and an owner of La Tulipe, which closed in 1991: Mitchel London crullers, $4, Butterfield Market, 1114 Lexington Avenue (78th Street), 212-288-7800, butterfieldmarket.com.